

Unit VI: Timeline

(30pts)

Directions:

Using your textbook;

1. Put these events in the right chronological order,
2. Also include a picture symbolizing EACH event.
3. Answer the questions below on the BACK of the timeline in 3-5 sentences.

- John Locke develops the theory of government
- Nicholas Copernicus presents a new view of the Universe
- Napoleon is crowned Emperor
- The Constitution of the United States is ratified
- Toleration act of 1689 is passed
- French Revolution begins
- Elizabeth I becomes queen of England
- The Church condemns Galileo's teachings
- Louis XIV is executed
- American colonies declare independence from Britain

1. What are the three estates in France, who belongs to each?
2. What is considered the final battle of the American Revolution, who aided the Americans in this battle?
3. Pg 554, do you see any commonalities between the Declaration of the Rights of Man and the Citizen and the Bill of Rights? Explain your answer.

Pg. 426, 508, 545 (use these pages to find the dates for the timeline events, and answers to the above questions.)